Dear Amy:

We are pleased that you were able to participate in the SBA Rising Star program on May 12. Please accept my congratulations, as well as my deepest regrets for not being able to join you. While I could not attend, I have heard from some of those in attendance that the story of ATC International was very well-received and that your presentation was excellent.

Small businesses such as yours deserve the recognition that you received from the SBA. Your dedication to the success and growth of ATC International epitomizes the entrepreneurial spirit that SCORE has fostered in you and hundreds of thousands of other small business owners.

Enclosed is a plaque in recognition of your achievement. Congratulations again on all of your small business success, and thank you taking the time to share your story.

Sincerely,

W. Kenneth Yancy, Jr., CEO
