Counselors to America's Small Business

May 25, 2003

Dear Amy,

Congratulations again on being selected as our Client of the Year for 2003. Yours is truly a success story. I have written up the ATC International, Inc and the Amy Frey success story in the hope of getting it on the cover of SCORE Today. You will note that I was searching for a "catchy" lead-in ala the enclosed SCORE Today story, hence the "accidental tourist".

Please look over the text and give me any changes you would make. It is about two columns longer than the magazine will use, so additions will probably not make the cut.

Also enclosed are some 4 x 6 prints of the award ceremony and two 5 x 7's of the handsome Frey/ Haeuber families for you and your folks.

You can send any changes to the text to dcscore@hotmail.com or give me an OK as is.

All best wishes for continued success and for more and more warehouses.

Sincerely,

Lee E. Surut
